CPT INFORMATION SERVICES

“Signs of the Times” – quarterly newsletter distributed to 21,000 readers in the U.S., Canada and internationally; includes reports and stories from CPT’s violence-reduction projects, Dialogue (excerpts from postings to CPT’s e-mail discussion network), Peace Briefs, Letters, Announcements, Calendar, and other inspirational contributions; contact CPT Chicago office to subscribe; donations accepted to help defray printing and mailing costs.

CPTNet – e-mail network posting brief, up-to-date, firsthand reports from CPT’s violence-reduction projects to 2600 subscribers world-wide; daily releases, between 300-500 words in length, are posted each week; each Wednesday CPTNet issues short “Prayers for Peacemakers” for use by congregations in worship and church bulletins; to subscribe, see below.

CPT.D – open e-mail forum for discussion on CPT’s vision and work; 450 subscribers engage in vibrant dialogue about CPT’s nonviolent peacemaking efforts around the world; can go for weeks with no activity, then something will spark a flurry of exchanges; to subscribe, see below.

GITW – is an internal, unmoderated discussion group for CPT corps, reservists, support team and steering committee; serves as primary communication vehicle for:

1. announcements/prayer requests related to CPT (births, deaths, illness, marriage...)
2. building consensus regarding organization-wide agenda (events such as retreats, congresses, etc.; proposals/decisions regarding policies, practices, etc.)
3. discussing issues and challenges related to our nonviolence work.

Web Site – access CPT’s web site at www.cpt.org; resources include archives of CPTNet releases, newsletters, annual reports, special organizing packets, photos, and the latest news from the field.
