
SPIRITUALITY OF PEACEMAKING

Public Witness & Nonviolent Direct Action
Beyond the paralysis of analysis - Walking in the light - Truth and Insight of I, II, & III
Courage - Boldness - Sacrifice - Risk - Cross-bearing - Jesus' Third Way - Cloud of Witnesses

Exposure, Analysis, Reflection
Embracing as sisters & brothers those who suffer, are treated unjustly, or excluded
Understanding root causes of violence and evil, in community
Anabaptist nonviolent view of history

Spiritual Disciplines
Rooting us in the transforming power of Divine Love simple living - retreats & silence - sharing money - scriptural meditation & prayer - worship - fasting - practicing mv

Christocentric

The engine of praxis is prayer

Agape Love
Support Community
Smelling the Flowers
Risking

Celebration!
Sense of Humor
Making Connections
Considering the Birds

Intermingling Strands

“Praxis” is a means of Christian formation which engages the Christian and/or faith-based community in the world for the purpose of personal and social transformation.

“Praxis” comes from theologians working with the Base Christian Communities in Latin America.

*“Praxis” means reflection on life.
The engine of the praxis cycle is prayer -- keeping the community focused.*